

I Die Desire

Intro: C#m7 C7 C#m7 C7 C7

Verse 1:

[C#m7 C#m7 C7 C7] X 2

I'd like to say something about you

But I have no way to really speak my mind

C#m7 C#m7 A7 A7

'Cause English is a language that I haven't used much lately

C#m7 C#m7 B7 A7

To say what I need to say

Chorus:

C7 C7

I die desire I see require

C7 — A7 C7 — F7sus4

I need, I care, I fall, I fare fairly well ...It's just my mind's in hell

(repeat)

Verse 2: (1st 2 lines as V1)

Heart on my sleeve, leaving a stain

And I don't know how I'll deal with the strain

A7

If the future gets warlike, I hope there's a truce

C7

For now I'm defending, remaining abstruce

Chorus II:

E7 A7

I'm chuckin' a torch down each blind alley

A7

Following through with a mental drain

E7

Getting back on the road that I've never been off of

A7—A—A7—A

Licking the wounds that I've gouged in my brain

Does it sound insane?

Chorus

Verse 3: [C#m7 C#m7 C7 C7] X 3 A A7

I've long lost count of the mental "I love you"'s

Guess I don't say them too much any more

Maybe I'd like to just start it all up again

Maybe that's what I've been singing this for

Chorus II

Chorus + extra repeat w/:

C7 C7+F

I need, I care, I fall, I fare, I eat those who approach my lair

C7 (strike hard 4 times over rit) A7

I live, I die, it's only fair, I fare... fairly well
